

	BRONZE	SILVER	GOLD
AIMS	To be able to plan and follow routes in the countryside using paths and tracks	To be able to plan and follow routes in the countryside navigating away from handrail features for short distances	To be able to plan and follow routes in forest, open countryside, hill & mountain environments
Minimum competence for delivery: NNAS Tutor Award PLUS one of the qualifications to the right 	British Orienteering UKCC Level 2 Lowland Leader Award (LLA) Award of Basic Expedition Leader (BEL) or Lowland Expedition Leader (LEL) Sea Cadet Adventure Leader (SCAL) Countryside Leader Award (CLA) Land Navigation SME Scout T2 Bronze Tutors: Completed NNAS Tutor Award, MUST be authorised by NNAS prior to assisting on Bronze courses for a registered Provider under the guidance of an NNAS Course Director, who will be responsible for safety & course management. Or Other equivalent awards (please contact the office)	Hill & Moorland Leader Award (HML) Mountain Leader Award (ML) JSMEL SW Moorland Walking Leader Award British Orienteering UKCC Level 3 Other equivalent military awards	As for Silver with extensive experience of delivering Bronze and Silver navigator award. Attend one of our Gold Tutor courses and comply with your action plan if one is given.
Staff / candidate ratio for training and assessment	Max 1:8	Max 1:8	Max 1:4
Course duration	Minimum 12 hours over at least 2 days. Assessment included or at a later date as appropriate.	Minimum 12 hours over at least 2 days. Assessment included or at a later date as appropriate	Minimum 12 hours practical training and assessment over at least 2 days. Pre and Post course home research papers.
Assessment distances	3-5 km depending on terrain	5-8 km depending on terrain	6-10 km depending on terrain